[41-43]

W: Dan, I need someone to fix my computer immediately.
There's important data on it that I need for my presentation tomorrow.

M: I'll arrange it right away. Also, Max can help you access the files on my system if it's very urgent.

W: Thanks. That will be really useful. How soon can Max come?

M: Well, he should be here in five minutes. I'll send him over immediately.

[44-46]

M: How's the response to our advertisement for supervisors?

W: Well, we have about forty applications, but there's hardly anyone with experience.

M: I think we should contact an agency to help us find the right people.

[47-49]

W: Prakash, I am stuck in heavy traffic on Falcon Street and will be late for the meeting. Could you do me a favor?

M: Certainly. What would you like me to do?

W: Please tell Mr. Ramesh about the client's new requirements. His cell phone is switched off.

M: Yes, I'll pass on your message. Mr. Ramesh doesn't take calls when he is driving.

[50-52]

M: This is Papyrus, the paper shop. How may I help you?

W: I saw some of your handmade paper at a friend's place. Could I see more designs, maybe, on your web site or your catalog?

M: It would be best to come over and look at our wide range of paper to suit different budgets. You'll see why our products are so popular.

W: I think I'll do that. Where are you located?

[53-55]

M: Isn't that a new restaurant? Right across from our office, too! I wonder how it is!

W: Sam said the food was just great. Shall we have lunch there this afternoon?

M: Sorry, but I have a meeting at noon and I'm sure it's going to be a long one.

W: Well then, maybe we could go and get a snack after work this evening.

[56-58]

W: Hello, Mr. Lim. I'm calling to confirm your booking for the 7 o'clock show at the Grand City Theater.

M: Thank you, where can I collect the passes? We're quite a large group, you know.

W: Yes, Mike at Counter #1 will hand them over. Please remember to take your seats by 6:50 p.m.

M: I'll do that. We'll all come in straight from work.

[59-61]

M: I'd like to pick up a package that arrived yesterday. My name's Walter Crane.

W: Please wait while I check. Apparently there was no one at your address when it was delivered yesterday.

M: That's right. I was away on a holiday and couldn't arrange for it to be collected either.

W: Here you are, sir. Please sign this receipt before you leave.

[62-64]

W: Viren, will you be back from London by Friday?

M: I should be, unless something urgent turns up after the meeting on Thursday. Why do you ask?

W: I've planned a party for Afzal that night. He's going off to New York on training next week.

M: Thanks for reminding me. I'd love to come. What can I bring for the party?

[65-67]

M: The weekend sale went very well, don't you think?

W: Yes, our new line of chairs and coffee tables has sold out completely.

M: We still need to sell the accessories, though. Do you have any suggestions?

W: We could announce a special discount for the table lamps and mirrors, perhaps?

[68-70]

M: Hi, could you tell me where the conference is being held? I've already registered for it.

W: In the Convention Hall on the second floor, sir.

M: Thanks. Also, do you know when Professor Ferguson's presentation is going to be? I hope I haven't missed it!

W: One of the volunteers at that desk will be able to tell you.

Ladies and gentlemen, I'm sorry to announce that tonight's concert will be delayed by an hour due to technical difficulties. The program will now begin at 7 p.m. We encourage you to visit the cafeteria in the basement, and our display of vintage photographs on the first floor. Please be sure to carry your passes with you when you leave the hall. You will need to show them at the entrance when you come back for the performance.

[74-76]

The next stop on our tour is Jacoby Park. This is one of the oldest parks in the town, built in memory of Trevor Jacoby, a famous poet and statesman. The flower clock you see to your right dates back to the nineteenth century. The park also has a musical fountain, with a spectacular sound and light show held every evening. Boating facilities are available at the lake for a small fee. Enjoy your visit and please be back here at 3 p.m. for the trip back to the hotel.

[77-79]

Welcome to the Good Health Show. We're pleased to have well-known dietician Paulina Cruz on the show today. She will tell us how drinking a few extra glasses of water can help us lose weight and keep fit. In our regular exercise segment with Nina Jose, we will learn simple exercises to fight fatigue at work. Also, stay tuned for information on the latest health foods in the market.

[80-82]

Our company can only profit when we are able to develop entirely new products. In your efforts to develop new products you will have to use many sources. You will also have to know all about the potential customers. After more than 30 years in this industry, I can tell you that the best way to get ideas about new products is customer surveys. They'll give you an idea of what kinds of products customers are interested in. Also, take the time to speak to customers. Before you go into the research lab, make sure you are developing products that customers really need.

[83-85]

You have reached the inquiry system of Parson's Telecommunications. Dial 011 followed by the extension number if you wish to speak to an employee. For information regarding our services and offers, dial 012. To enquire about bills or payment options, dial 013 and wait for further instructions. Press the star button to hear this message again. You may also visit our web site for more details. Thank you for calling and have a nice day.

[86-88]

Hello, I'm Janet Hill, Senior Chef with Wonderfoods. We believe that while good food is an important part of our lives, making it should not be tiresome. At today's demonstration, I will show you how to make wholesome and tasty treats for your children using Wonderfoods products. The first is a dessert that is healthy but delicious. The second recipe is a snack that you can make quickly to send to school. Please feel free to ask questions, and please remember to collect the order forms and free recipe booklets before you leave.

[89-91]

Thank you all for being here today. As you know, we're here to say goodbye to Ms. Ling, who's retiring as president after 35 years of service with Axion Electronics. With her hard work and commitment, she has become an inspiration to all staff, from new recruits to the board members. Her interest in innovation has led to the creation of the Axion fund for market research and the commissioning of the new research center. We will all miss her outstanding leadership. Let's wish her all the best.

[92-94]

Hi, I'm Mark Spender from Human Resources. I will be taking you on a tour of our facilities, starting at the shop floor in this building. As you can see, this is where our company's products are made. Up ahead is the Delivery section from where our products go out into the market. On the first floor we have the Accounting section. Let's now go into Human Resources to collect your employee identification badges. Once you've received the badges we'll go into the cafeteria for a cup of coffee, and I'll be happy to answer any questions that you may have.

[95-97]

Hello, Ms. Lee. This is Aaron Parks from Axis Corporation. I'm calling to let you know that your presentation yesterday impressed us all. We'd like you to send us a price quote for the Branden project. Please respond by the 10th of June at the latest. I must remind you that we cannot accept any bid submitted after that date. If you have any questions, please contact me at 555-9802. We look forward to hearing from you.

[98-100]

The City Council has just approved a plan to install a new pipeline on Madison Avenue between 25th Street and the Town Hall. The work will begin on July 7th and is expected to take a month. Though much of the work is scheduled for the night, some roads in the area may be closed to traffic in the daytime. Commuters are advised to use other routes while work is going on. Visit the council web site for updates and associated news.
